

General Contractors Seminar

WHAT

The Louisiana Contractors Accreditation Institute (LCAI) General Contractors Seminar is a 10-week virtual course focusing on providing technical knowledge essential for commercial construction in Louisiana. Commercial construction topics covered include:

- Print Reading
- Building Calculations
- Site Work, Demolition, and Construction
- Foundations, Formwork, and Retaining Walls
- Interior Finishes and Exterior Finishes
- Roofs and Roof Structures
- Structural Loads
- Concrete and Masonry
- Steel Construction
- Fire Protection Systems
- Related Trades
- Types of Construction and Special Construction
- Special Equipment
- Safety Codes

WHEN

February 23 - April 29, 2026

Registration Period:
Now - February 20, 2026

WHERE

Classes are taught twice per week with two-hour sessions via Zoom.

WHO

The General Contractors Seminar is open to individuals who have an established construction business in Louisiana or who intend to start one.

COST

The $350 course fee covers the cost of registration and course materials.

QUESTIONS

For more information click here or contact Small Business Services Program Manager Camille Campbell at camille.campbell@la.gov or 225-342-5534.

